THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. John Waller
Inspector General

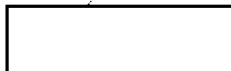

Dear John:

This is a very belated expression of thanks for the phone call you made to me on the occasion of my new appointment. I had held off writing pending the confirmation process and a swearing-in. I wanted to be legal before going in writing.

You and I will play key roles as we move into the future of this great Agency. I feel upbeat and confident knowing that the important role of Inspector General will be filled by a man of your great abilities. No doubt we will encounter problems and difficulties in the times ahead, but the opportunities most surely outnumber them.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
